COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

BIB120 New Testament Literature (3) A survey of New Testament literature stressing the major features and genre of each book. Special attention is also given to the theology, historical context, and background of each book.

BIB202 1 Corinthians (3) Prerequisite: BIB120; This course introduces the principles and methods by which a faithful meaning of the Scriptures may be obtained. Its primary focus, but is not limited, to New Testament interpretation. This course also introduces the student to both essential research tools such as critical commentaries, dictionaries, lexicons, and serves as a foundational course for biblical preaching and teaching.

BIB295 Romans (3) Prerequisite: BIB110, BIB120, BIB220; This course is designed to introduce the student with Paul's epistle with consideration of his doctrinal teachings. Special emphasis is in learning the historical, linguistic, and Jewish context of the first century.

THE256 Theological Ethics for Christian Leaders (3) This course is a study of ethics from a theological and biblical perspective. It provides the foundation for ethical analysis of modern and moral challenges at the personal and public level of life. Topics covered include the study of virtue, deontology, teleology and utilitarianism.

THE124 Pentecostal Theology (3) This course introduces the student on the tenets of the Assemblies of God. Emphasis is placed on the foundation of Pentecostalism, an examination of the four cardinal doctrines of the Assemblies of God such as the role and work of the Spirit in relation to baptism, salvation, healing, and the second coming of Christ.

THE352 Pneumatology (3) Prerequisite: THE103, THE124; This course introduces the student to the theology of the Holy Spirit as expressed through the perspective of the Pentecostal tradition. This study of the Holy Spirit includes such topics as the Spirit's: titles and symbols, personality, deity, baptism, gifts, and fruits. Special emphasis is placed on the articulation of an experiential pneumatology for today's church and world.

MIN120 Practicum II: Personal Ministerial Development (1) Topics covered in this course include: Character, integrity, accountability, conflict management, problem solving, professionalism in social media, the personal life of a minister, the influence of a minister, the responsibility of a minister, reproducing ministers, insights from Paul and other biblical examples.

MIN199 Communicating the Gospel in a Post-Christian Context (3) A study of the methodology of engaging in a conversation with people who come from different context, religious backgrounds, worldviews, philosophies, and moralities. This includes learning the art of communicating effectively the gospel message to our culture and audience without compromising the integrity and truth of the Gospel.

MIN430 Race, Poverty, and the Environment (3) Prerequisite: MIN110, MIN120, MIN130, MIN199; This course provides an introduction to the biblical and ministerial responsibilities in addressing social issues revolving race, poverty, and the environment. Students will learn the ministerial responsibility of social change, how to address these social challenges from a ministerial perspective, and develop models for ministry that will teach, bring awareness, and impact the community on these issues.

HIS202 Church History I (3) A survey of the major theological controversies, persons, and writings of church history from the New Testament to the Reformation.

MAT163 Math and Personal Financial Management (3) An introduction to algebra for the financial arithmetic and an introduction to consumer math that will aid the student's financial life. Topics included within this course are accounting principles, taxing, simple and compound interest, investments, and credit cards.

PSY101 Introduction to Psychology (3) An introduction to the fundamental concepts of psychology which includes human behavior, learning, motivation and emotion, personality, and the application of psychological principles for a ministerial setting.
