ACADEMIC COURSE SCHEDULE

SPRING 2026: January 12, 2026 - May 8, 2026

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

BIB120 New Testament Literature (3) A survey of New Testament literature stressing the major features and genre of each book. Special attention is also given to the theology, historical context, and background of each book.

BIB201 Psalms (3) Prerequisite: BIB110, BIB120, BIB220; The course will combine a study of some of the broader issues of the Book of Psalms such as the history of interpretation, the Hebrew poetry, the Psalter as a collection, and the use of the Psalms in worship with exegetical study of individual psalms.

BIB350 Kingdom of God in the Testaments (3) Prerequisite: BIB110, BIB120, BIB220; An exploration of the historical, theological, and ethical significance of the Kingdom of God within the Old and New Testament. Topics focus on the biblical witnesses to the kingdom, the mission and message of Jesus, the role of the people of God, and the ongoing significance of the kingdom for society and the church's mission.

THE124 Pentecostal Theology (3) This course introduces the student on the tenets of the Assemblies of God. Emphasis is placed on the foundation of Pentecostalism, an examination of the four cardinal doctrines of the Assemblies of God such as the role and work of the Spirit in relation to baptism, salvation, healing, and the second coming of Christ.

THE256 Theological Ethics for Christian Leaders (3) This course is a study of ethics from a theological and biblical perspective. It provides the foundation for ethical analysis of modern and moral challenges at the personal and public level of life. Topics covered include the study of virtue, deontology, teleology and utilitarianism.

THE340 Introduction to Mission Theology (3) Prerequisite: THE103, THE124, THE256; This course introduces the student to the concept of the Mission of God as expressed through the perspective of the larger evangelical/Pentecostal tradition. Focus will be on reading the Biblical text, and thinking theologically, from the perception of God's missional intentions. This course will advocate for a reading of the Bible that sees God's mission unfolding under his providence and will stress the role his people have in this mission. Special emphasis is placed on the contextual aspect of Mission Theology.

MIN120 Practicum II: Personal Ministerial Development (1) Practicum courses are designed to serve as an opportunity to learn the essentials of ministry and integrate academic learning with practical ministry experience. Students are required to put in practice their learnings by serving in a church, ministry, or organization. Topics covered for this course include the spiritual practices, developing personal character and integrity as a minister, dealing with people in ministry through conflict management and problem-solving skills, and the professional responsibilities of the minister with family life, social life, and spiritual life.

MIN130 Practicum III: Personal Ministerial Development (1) Practicum III focuses on learning how to implement the ordinances and rites of the church. Topics covered in this course include: How to baptize, marry, bury, administer Communion, altar prayer, laying on hands, praying for the sick, healing, and deliverance.

MIN218 Gender, Leadership, and the Church (3) This course intends to introduce the student to the necessity of overcoming the gender discrimination and inequality that occurs within ministry and leadership. Various issues, problems, challenges, and social complexities that revolve around the different gender roles within the church and leadership are addressed.

MIN251 Biblical Theology of Worship and Prayer in Children's Ministry (3) This course establishes the theological and biblical foundations for worship and prayer within children's ministry. Students explore key Old and New Testament themes, examining how Scripture shapes a theology of worship and prayer appropriate for children. Emphasis is placed on understanding God's design for worship, the role of the Spirit in childlike faith, and how to guide children toward authentic encounters with God. (online only)

MIN400 Cross Cultural Ministry (3) Prerequisite: MIN110, MIN120, MIN130, MIN199; This course seeks to expose students to the models of cross-cultural ministry. Students will learn how to minister in multi-cultural settings, understand cultural boundaries, learn how to communicate the gospel in diverse settings, and appreciate the value of cross-cultural ministry.

HIS202 Church History (3) A survey of the major theological controversies, persons, and writings of church history from the New Testament to the Reformation. (online only)

MAT163 Math and Personal Financial Management (3) An introduction to algebra for financial arithmetic and an introduction to consumer math that will aid the student's financial life. Topics included within this course are accounting principles, taxing, simple and compound interest, investments, and credit cards.
