COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

BIB110 Old Testament Literature (3) A course that has as its primary content the Old Testament, stressing the major features of each book and emphasizing the practical value for our modern context. Special attention is also given to analyzing the literary and theology characteristics of the text, as well as the theology, chronology, archeology, and historical background of each book.

BIB220 Biblical Exegesis (3) Prerequisite: BIB110, BIB120; This course introduces the principles and methods by which a faithful meaning of the Scriptures may be obtained. Its primary focus, but is not limited, to New Testament interpretation. This course also introduces the student to both essential research tools such as critical commentaries, dictionaries, lexicons, and serves as a foundational course for biblical preaching and teaching.

BIB383 Introduction to Greek (3) Prerequisite: BIB110, BIB120, BIB220; This course is a basic introduction to Koine Greek vocabulary and grammar and should equip the student for beginning to read the Greek New Testament, as well as for subsequent study in syntax and exegesis.

THE103 Introduction to Systematic Theology (3) This course introduces the student to systematic Christian doctrine as expressed through the perspective of the larger evangelical tradition. This includes an in-depth study of the methodology, Bibliology, Theology proper, Christology, Pneumatology, Soteriology, Ecclesiology, and Eschatology. Special emphasis is placed on the articulation of theology for our modern context.

THE200 Pastoral Theology (3) Prerequisite: THE103, THE124, THE256; A theological study of Pastoral Ministry with emphasis given to its biblical foundation, philosophy of ministry, and the various areas of pastoral ministry; including historical and contemporary theologies of ordained and lay ministry.

MIN110 Practicum I: Spiritual Gifts in Ministry (1) Practicum courses are designed to serve as an opportunity to learn the essentials of ministry, integrate academic learning with practical ministry experience, discern of one's call, and learn the liturgical practices of the church. Students are required to put in practice their learnings by serving in a church, ministry, or organization. Topics covered in this course include: spiritual gifts and their classifications, servant profiles, personal style, and passion ministry categories.

MIN130 Practicum III: Ministry Ordinances and Rites (1) Prerequisite: MIN110; Practicum courses are designed to serve as an opportunity to learn the essentials of ministry and integrate academic learning with practical ministry experience. Students are required to put in practice their learnings by serving in a church, ministry, or organization. Practicum III focuses on learning how to implement the ordinances and rites of the church. Topics covered in this course include: How to baptize, marry, bury, administer Communion, altar prayer, laying on hands, praying for the sick, healing, and deliverance.

MIN115 Spiritual Disciplines (3) A study of the biblical and theological foundations of spiritual formation. The course seeks to establish a sound theological framework for a functioning spirituality within the Pentecostal tradition. Such topics as prayer, worship community, and other such disciplines will be considered.

MIN300 Mission and Culture (3) Prerequisite: MIN110, MIN120, MIN199; This interdisciplinary study, integrating theology and praxis, seeks to develop a theology of mission based on the premise that the unifying theme of Scripture is embodied in the concept of the Kingdom of God introduced in the Old Testament, fulfilled in the ministry of Jesus Christ in the New Testament, and demonstrated to the world through the life and actions of a believing community empowered by the Holy Spirit.

ENG126 Persuasive Writing (3) Students will focus on the conventions of academic writing with particular attention to persuasive writing. The purpose of this course is to help students write convincing, well-developed, and well-organized essays that synthesize, document, and respond to various sources, arguments, and positions on a given topic.

SPE106 Public Speaking (3) This introductory course is designed to prepare students to be effective oral communicators in all aspects of public presentations including design and delivery of the public speech. The course is appropriate for all students interested in developing their public speaking knowledge and skills.
